

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is an outrage -
undemocratic,
unethical and
unfair!

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. This is clearly a political advertisement and
should be treated
that way!

Sinclair's actions
also show why we need to strengthen
media ownership
rules, not weaken them. We need a decentralization of power, not fewer owners for more stations. They show
why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
Professor Marc Lampe